AACC Bookstore Computer and Technology Product Purchase Agreement

Last, First Name (Please PRINT)

Purchase Date

Please sign below to accept all of the following terms of this agreement:

- All service and support must be obtained from the manufacturer under the standard warranty.
- The AACC Bookstore and AACC Helpdesk are not able to provide any repair, support or instruction for this computer or technology product or for any associated software or accessories.
- I am only allowed to purchase one computer per calendar year through the AACC Bookstore. Other purchase restrictions may apply for other technology products as determined by store personnel.
- Computer and technology product sales are final once the box is opened unless the computer or product is defective as determined by store personnel.

If you purchase this computer or technology product on AACC credit based on pending financial aid or expected payments from a third party sponsor, the following additional restrictions apply:

- I am still responsible for submitting full payment of any charges related to this purchase to AACC if my Financial Aid or Third Party funds are reduced, canceled, or cannot be disbursed for any reason.
- I am required to purchase or obtain all my required textbooks for this term before I use any Financial Aid or Third Party Bookstore Advance funds to purchase a computer.

To get the best possible price for any needed software, all students are strongly encouraged to explore the student discount prices available through AACC's E-Academy program. These discount prices are only available to AACC students. All purchases must be completed online through E-Academy and they only accept payment from a valid Visa or MasterCard. AACC Financial Aid or Third Party Book Advances cannot be used to make purchases through E-Academy. For more details, please visit <http://aacc.e-academy.com>.

The AACC Bookstore also offers academic discounts on boxed software. E-Academy prices are usually lower than the academic retail prices offered on boxed versions. AACC Financial Aid or Third Party Book Advances can be used to purchase boxed software from the Bookstore.
